

Fleadh Nua '94

Dé Domhnaigh Sunday Night 8.00 p.m. Dánlann an Chláir

Senior Scoraíocht

8.00 p.m. Drogheda (Co. Louth):-

"Ocht gcéad bliain ó shin".

This show, based on historical events in Drogheda in the 11th century, is produced by Lolo Robinson and Dick Murphy. The Branch has performed in this event each year since 1989.

Leeds C.C.E., Britain:-

This Branch have made a great contribution to scoraíocht participating each year since 1983, and claiming five wins and seven Best production trophies, and showing remarkable dedication and ability in surmounting the logistical and financial problems involved. This presentation "The County of the Mind" produced by Joe Flannery and Elizabeth Gallagher is based on the settlement of Irish people into an area of Leeds called "The Bank", where the Irish Centre now stands.

Paddy O'Brien Ormond C.C.E., Co. Tipperary:-

"The Juice of the Barley" produced by Lily Slevin. The light hearted reflections of a blacksmith on his life. This is the fourth entry by this Branch in this event and a great performance can be expected after their excellent winning show last year.

The organising committee sincerely welcomes the above groups to Fleadh Nua 1994 and confidently assures all patrons of a top nights entertainment.

Fleadh Nua '94

A Night of Singing Songs - Amhráin

Lively or Slow - In Irish or English

Saturday Night, 28th May at 10.30 p.m.

Oíche na nAmhrán for singers and listeners at

CIARAN'S BAR

1 Francis Street, Ennis

Fleadh Nua '94

De Sathairn

Commences 12.30 p.m.

Saturday

Scoraíocht agus Pléaráca na nÓg

Dánlann an Chláir

These Junior Competitions have been held in conjunction with Ceol an Gheimhridh for the past few years but now are welcome additions to the Fleadh Nua. In addition to competitors from Ireland our overseas visitors from Newcastle-Upon-Tyne and Leeds in Britain are also taking part. A great day's competition and entertainment is assured.

Pléaráca na nÓg

Commences at 12.30 p.m.

Bantry, Co. Cork:-

No strangers to Fleadh Nua, Gordon Hardwick is the producer for this enthusiastic young group with their second entry to Pléaráca na nÓg.

Leeds C.C.E., Britain:-

part of a group of over 100 travelling from Leeds to Ennis, this year's show, based on an emigrant theme, is produced by Dean Warner and Helen Dunleavy.

Craobh Fred Finn, Sligo:-

This Branch, formed in 1987, now has over 100 junior members and has completed at Fleadh Nua for the last three years. They put on a summer show in the Monkswell Theatre in Sligo and have performed in Washington, U.S.A. in 1993 and Britanny in 1992. Produced by Seamus MacCormack.

Scoraíocht na nÓg

Commences at 2.30 p.m.

Tempall an Ghleanntáin, Co. Limerick:-

Regular entrants in this event since 1980, we can expect a lively and entertaining performance from this experienced Branch, titled Bealtaine. This show, produced by Máirín Uí Mhurchu and Tadhg Ó Maolcatha, is based on customs and traditions associated with May eve and May day.

Comhaltas an Chreagáin, Derry:-

A big welcome to another first time competitor at Fleadh Nua This Branch, founded in 1986, includes classes in Celtic art and drama among it's activities. This show, called "The Cursing Stone of Tory Island", involves the folklore surrounding the sinking of HMS Wasp in 1884. We are very glad to have them with us and hope they enjoy themselves.

Moroe-Cappamore, Co. Limerick:-

Titled "Cúirt an Mháister Rince", set at the end of the 19th century and produced by Marian Leville, this is the group's first scoraíocht na nÓg but they have won Pléaráca na nÓg for the last three years..

Newcastle-upon-Tyne C.C.E., Britain:

"Bridging the Gap", Musical Director, Tony Corcoran, author/producer Chris Goulding, choreography John Liner. The settlement of Irish people on Tyneside and their relationship with local people and culture. The title refers to the High Level Bridge, built in 1850 between Newcastle and Gateshead, largely by Irish workers.

We extend a warm welcome to Newcastle Branch on their first entry at the Fleadh Nua..